

LEAGUE GRABS STRAUS AS HEAD OF STATE TICKET

Moose Chairman Hotchkiss
Protests and Is Attacked in Bitter Speeches.

SESSION A STORMY ONE.

Sulzer's Friends Beaten by Ten Votes on Roll Call—
Glynn Also Indorsed.

The Independence League after a stormy session lasting till early this morning indorsed Oscar Straus for Governor and Martin H. Glynn for Lieutenant-Governor. Straus is head of the Bull Moose ticket; Glynn has second place on the Democratic ticket.

The league's convention, held in Arlington Hall, No. 28 East Eighth street, was really a struggle between rival factions for the indorsement of Straus or Sulzer. It was a struggle, too, hand to hand and foot to foot, harangues, denunciations, caustic, fear, hoots, yells, a set fight and charges of illegal voting. Chairman James E. Allen warned the delegates that those who voted more than once were liable to indictment and he called a policeman to preserve order.

It was hard to determine who had the most followers, Sulzer or Straus. At the name of each came cheers, yells, hoots. There were cheers for Sulzer and hoots for Straus; there were cheers for Straus and hoots for Sulzer. All the spellbinders demanded to be heard and every delegate was a spellbinder. And as the orators warmed up cries of "Sit down!" and "Throw him out!" were frequent.

BITTER ATTACK ON HOTCHKISS FOR "OBJECTIONING."

Herbert R. Limburg started the ball rolling. He said he had wired to Oscar Straus asking if he would accept the nomination of the Independence League. Mr. Straus had replied that he would if there were no insuperable legal difficulties. He referred the League to Chairman Hotchkiss of the Progressive State Committee. Mr. Hotchkiss declared that if Mr. Straus were indorsed by the League it might injure the Progressive party. All votes for Straus would be counted as independence League votes and this would prevent the Progressive party from getting one-half the political machinery of the State next year even if it polled votes enough to make it one of the two big parties.

T. E. O'Laughlin declared this "bugaboo" was raised because Hotchkiss did not want Straus elected. He had hoped to be nominated himself, and, having failed, now he sought to beat Straus, he declared.

"The success of Straus," concluded the speaker, "is being made secondary to Mr. Hotchkiss getting the control of half the State election machinery."

Then the trouble started. The Sulzer supporters attacked the Bull Moose and were called Tammany workers. Chairman Allen pounded for peace in vain and nearly lost his gavel. Roosevelt and Murphy came in for a share of the general roast. So it was 1 o'clock when they were calling the first roll, and even then the tumult continued, and once the chairman threatened to adjourn the convention.

Out of a total of 178 votes cast Straus received 80 and Sulzer 73. The indorsement of Straus was made unanimous. Then Glynn, the Democratic Vice-President, Lieutenant-Governor, was indorsed and the convention adjourned until tomorrow when the State ticket will be completed.

MANY RADICAL DEMANDS PUT INTO PLATFORM.

The league's platform calls for direct nominations and a direct primary law doing away with conventions; the initiative and referendum and the recall; the Massachusetts form of ballot; repeal of the Levy election law; direct election of United States Senators; the abolition of the Electoral College and the election of the President and Vice-President by direct vote of the people; woman's suffrage; home rule for cities; a workmen's compensation act; no ex parte injunctions in labor disputes; a clearinghouse of the Highways Commission; the abolition of gross crossings; and a new treaty with Russia.

State supervision and public control of stock exchanges and that dealing in futures on the necessities of life, be made a felony is also demanded.

The platform favors a constitutional convention at the earliest possible time; the income tax and the single tax on land values; the creation of public markets for the handling of farm products to lessen the cost of living; uniformity in divorce laws with those of other States; an eight-hour law; the establishment of State and municipal employment bureaus; old age pensions; abolition of child labor; prohibition of night labor for women and the necessary legislation to do away with the watering of stock.

ACTS ON SPANISH STRIKE.

King Alfonso Convinces Parliament to Discuss Situation.

MADRID, Oct. 4.—King Alfonso today convened the Spanish Parliament to meet on Oct. 14 to discuss the situation arising out of the strike on the Spanish railroads, which has held up almost the entire traffic of Spain.

HENDAYE, France, Oct. 3.—Most railroad strikers among the Spanish army reserves are ignoring the Government's call to the colors, it was learned today. The plan was to force them, as soldiers, to run the trains.

Peter S. Foley Dead.

Peter S. Foley, one of the aldermen and assemblyman from the First District, Manhattan, died at his home No. 25 Vanderbilt avenue, Jamaica today. He had been ill a year with rheumatism. Mr. Foley was born in Ireland sixty years ago. He came to America when seven years old. He was an active Tammany man. When he moved to Jamaica he married Margaret Mac-Auley who survives him as does one son, James, and a daughter, Edna. In Jamaica he became a trustee of the old village and was president of the village board. He was a member of the

GOV. MARSHALL HERE; "FIRST TO SHED BLOOD IN CAMPAIGN," HE SAYS

Boy's Stone Gave Him Sore
Nose—Likens Opponents to Erring Doctors.

Gov. Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, arrived in New York today. The Governor has an extremely sore nose as a result of being hit by a stone thrown by a small boy as he was nearing Montville, Conn., yesterday afternoon.

The stone drew blood, but the Governor cherishes no grievance.

"I've shed the first blood of the campaign," he said smiling.

Gov. Marshall's first engagement was to address a big crowd at the Democratic exhibit headquarters, No. 29 Union Square, at noon. He referred to the Republican and Progressive party candidates as two physicians who, having had the same patient under their care, were now quarrelling because neither in his ministrations had helped him.

"Both are afraid they are going to lose him," he said, "and both are advocating remedies that will help his pay envelope."

The Governor said that the Republican party, seeing how it had failed in its administration, is now seeking to stimulate the dinner-pail carrier by taxation. As a saline injection to restore him, he said, the Republicans promise to close factories if the Democratic ticket is elected.

Gov. Marshall was scheduled to address the Commercial Travelers after his speech at the anti-exhibit headquarters.

PLOT TO MASSACRE GREEKS IN ALBANIA; NOTABLE MURDERED

Athens Hears Turks Plan Their Utter Annihilation—System of Bomb Outrages.

ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 4.—Plans to annihilate all the Greeks now in Albania have been laid, according to reports received today from the Greco-Turkish frontier. The report says a Greek notable at Filiades has been assassinated.

The Albanian Governor of Janina has created a force of armed military police composed of one hundred outlaws. These men he has sent out ostensibly to pursue Greek rebels, but it is alleged, that the real object of the expedition is to annihilate all the Greeks in the vicinity.

It is also reported that bomb outrages are being arranged and the responsibility for them is to be cast on the Greeks in order to provoke their massacre by the Turks.

Three battalions of Montenegrin troops are reported to have crossed the Turkish frontier to assist the Malsor tribesmen in checking the approach of the Turkish troops.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 4.—Prince George of Greece started today for Athens in order to be ready to join the Greek army should hostilities break out.

J. P. Morgan Arrives Home from Senatorial Inquiry.

J. Pierpont Morgan returned to New York from Washington, after testifying at the Senatorial inquiry regarding his campaign contributions, on the Washington Special, which arrived at the Pennsylvania Terminal at 8:30 o'clock last night. He entered his automobile and was driven home. Asked if he had anything further to say regarding his testimony in Washington, he replied: "I have nothing to add."

You can "spot" a Young instantly by its style. The man who wears it bought it for that reason—and for the quality that he knows is in it.
